

HRT 131 : Honors African American Heritage

This course provides an in-depth study of African American life from its African origins to the present. Concentrated study given to African influences in political forces, social structures, religion, music, and art.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Admission into the Harte Honors College.