

HRT 232 : Honors Logic

This course provides an in-depth study of how reality is conceptualized and how concepts can be used as the basis for drawing rational conclusions. Students will study various methods for evaluating whether premises of an argument adequately support a conclusion.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Admission into the Harte Honors College.