

HRT 320 : Harte Honors Seminar: the Artist

This course is an introduction to the nature of design and the creative process. Students will explore works of fine art such as painting, sculpture, architecture, photography, film, poetry, music, drama, and dance for both structure and meaning. Assignments will be given to help students explore creative abilities in two or more of these areas.

Credits 2

Prerequisites

HRT 120, HRT 220, and admission into the Harte Honors College.
