

BIO 332 : General Ecology

This course is a study of the interactions between organisms and their surroundings. The course will also emphasize the distribution and abundance of organisms within the environment. This will allow the student to understand where organisms are found and why they are found there. This distribution and abundance will be studied at the levels of the population, community and ecosystem.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

BIO 142