

PSC 239 : Principles of American Government

This course presents a study of the principles and basic political institutions of the American system of government, primarily at the national level. Spring.

Credits 3