

PSY 433 : Clinical Assessment

This course is designed to focus on two major activities of clinical psychologists: assessment and clinical intervention (psychotherapy and program models). This course also includes the functions, history, training, and ethics of the profession.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

PSY 230

PSY 432