

REL 232 : Biblical Studies Since the Enlightenment

This course is an introduction to the history of critical biblical scholarship since the Enlightenment. It introduces the student to the different methods developed by biblical scholars by focusing on major research issues and agendas in the history of biblical studies.

Credits 3