

ACC 430 : Computerized Accounting

Computerized Accounting emphasizes the application of computers to sound accounting practices. Students will learn to direct the computer functions to accomplish the various steps learned in accounting principles in accordance with generally accepted procedures.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ACC 232 with grade C or better.