

ACC 435 : Cost Accounting

This course introduces the more complex aspects of managerial accounting that teach students to understand and analyze the responsibilities and distinctions between the roles of accounting that focus on organizing information for decision-making as well as a system for control of resources and inventory.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ACC 232 with grade C or better.