

MGT 335 : Human Resources Management

This course focus on management of employees with particular attention to the basic functions of human resource management and the environment that these function are administered.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

MGT 334 with grade C or better.