

ART 434 : Painting III

Painting III is an advanced study of pictorial design, emphasizing individual creativity while exploring painting through a series of related works. Students will focus their efforts on the development of individual style and technique. Offered Fall.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

ART 334