

ART 436 : Photography III

This advanced level course in photography emphasizes individual creativity through the exploration of different photographic styles, techniques, and processes. Students will create a series related through a selected narrative, further exploring photographic image-making while assembling works for the Senior Exhibition (ART 401). Offered occasionally.

Credits 3