

EED 430 : Elementary Curriculum and Teaching

This course is a study of the elementary school curriculum, scope and sequence. Emphasis is given to classroom management, learning styles, current methods, materials, problems.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Admission to Teacher Education. Public or private school field experience is a requirement of this course. Membership in the Student Alabama Education Association is required in order to take this course.