

EED 433 : Methods/Materials for Teaching Reading

In this course, practical applications are presented on various approaches to the teaching of reading readiness and reading in grades K-6.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Admission to Teacher Education. Public or private school field experience is a requirement of this course. Membership in the Student Alabama Education Association is required in order to take this course.