

EED 434 : Methods/Materials for Teaching Language Arts

This course is a survey of the curriculum, materials and instructional methods used in teaching language arts in grades K-6.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Admission to Teacher Education. Public or private school field experience is a requirement of this course. Membership in the Student Alabama Education Association is required in order to take this course.