

EED 435 : Methods/Materials for Teaching Social Studies

This course is a survey of the curriculum, materials and instructional methods used in teaching social studies in grades K-6.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Admission to Teacher Education. Public or private school field experience is a requirement of this course. Membership in the Student Alabama Education Association is required in order to take this course.