

MUS 236 : Introduction to Finale Music Notation Software

This course is designed to cover all aspects of Finale Music Notation, the industry standard in notational software. Upon completion, students will be capable of producing editions of their own compositions and arrangements that meet the industry standards of professional music publishers. Composition experience is not required.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

MUS 131