

MUS 331 : African-American Music

African-American Music is designed to be an exploration of American music showing characteristics surviving from African traditions and the contributions of Black musicians to Western musical culture. Open to all students.

Credits 3