

Early Admission for Superior High School Students

High school students with a 3.30 grade point average (4.00 scale) may be permitted to begin college work at Stillman before graduation from high school. Students selected for early admissions will receive regular college credit for courses successfully completed. In addition to the grade point average, the prospective student must be recommended by his/her school Guidance Counselor or other High School officials who are qualified to attest to his/her eligibility.