

ART 232: Art in Elementary Education

This course is designed to focus on the planning of art programs to meet the needs of children in nursery school through grade six. Experiences with design and color, art materials and processes, and inquiry into child growth and development in art are included in class activities. Lecture-discussions, reading and individual teaching are considered. Fall and spring.

Credits: 3

Program: Art and Art Education