

ART 435 : Ceramics II

Ceramics II is an advanced course in studio ceramics and continues the development of aesthetic concepts and construction techniques with clay in the exploration of vessel and non-vessel forms. Each student will design and execute a series based on his/her interest and skill. Students will receive further instruction in glazing and firing techniques. Emphasis will be on wheel thrown objects, both functional and non-functional. Offered Fall.

Credits 3