

BUS 211 : Professional Development

This course provides students with the experiences that will enable them to make the transition from college student to business professional. Career patterns are reviewed and analyzed, and goals are assessed for each student.

Credits 1