

MAT 241: Calculus III

This course extends the concepts of single variable calculus to multivariate functions. Topics include study of vector operations in n-dimensional space; vector-valued functions; differential and integral calculus of multiple variables; using geometry and trigonometry to solve problems involving calculus.

Credits: 4

Prerequisites: MAT 146

Program: Mathematics