

REL 334: Life and Writings of Paul

This course is a study of the times, life and mission of the Apostle Paul, which includes the settings, occasions and interpretations of his letters, as well as historical and literary criticism of them. Spring alternate years.

Credits: 3

Program: Religion